I will be sure to send it out electronically to those assisting us via email lists on the morning of the release of the PP. Those that are going into the community physically will be sent out via overnight mail to arrive on the release date. We'll see how tomorrow goes and whether we think we need the 1 p.m. call. Thanks much.

Thanks, Ann. As long as we make sure we share the flyer on the day the proposed plan is issued, the approach is fine by me.

I don't have anything for our touch base. Let's keep it on the calendar for now, but if we need to cancel, we can do that tomorrow.

Thanks again.

Terrific - I have people who will send it out to their email lists: Paul Agostini, Andrea Mason, Chris Bernardo (chair of the local business improvement district along lower and upper Broadway in Newark; and Jessica Laus (from our interviews) who will deliver flyers in the neighborhood as well as the manager (Jackie) of Riverside Arms, who will get them to the tenants. I am still waiting to hear back from Father Bismarck, Councilman Ramos and the North Ward Center, among others. Unfortunately, the Waterfront Rec Center is closed, but they will share the flyer with their email list. Will keep on plugging to get the word out. I see we have our Touch Base call tomorrow at 1 - still on for that? Let me know whatever works for you. Stay cool.

Paul reworked the flyer a bit to add the registration website and to clarify the public comment period. I think it works. Hope you like it. Hang in there - it's almost over!
